SSE Contracting supporting Cornwall Community

SSE Contracting are happy to sponsor the Royal Cornwall Show 2011, one of the countries biggest annual agricultural events that is filled with a wide range of exhibits and activities. This is the 218th year for the Royal Cornwall show, and attracts around 125,000 people over 3 days.

Christopher Riddle from the Royal Cornwall show said “Sponsorship plays a very important role at the Royal Cornwall Show and your sponsorship of the 2011 event is greatly appreciated. Please accept our sincere thanks, on behalf of both the Association and of those who take part in the show for this support.”

Russell Lye, District Contracts Manager of SSE Contracting said: “A way in which we can build meaningful relationships with our customers is through our engagement with the communities in which we work. The Royal Cornwall show is an excellent way to demonstrate our dedication to the local community, which is also good for agriculture and tourism”.
